

The River Church

50/50 Bible Study Challenge - Week 15

Luke Chapter Ten

Memory Verse: Luke 10:27 (NASB95): 27 And he answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.”

Talking points:

-After reading verse one. Why did Jesus send the Disciples out? Do we still practice this same strategy?

-In verse two He is very specific in what they are not to bring. What do you think the Disciples learned through this?

-What is the significance of verse five and six?

-Is verse ten and eleven a social declaration or a Spiritual declaration? What is the declaration doing?

-What is the promise Jesus states to the disciples in verse sixteen? Does this promise stand today for workers of the Gospel?

-List four truths that are listed in verse seventeen through twenty.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.

How do they speak to you personally?

After reading verse twenty-one through twenty-four

-What reason did God have for revealing the Spiritual truths to the Disciples instead of the Theologians of the day?

-What does this reveal about Gods character?

-Now that we live under Grace and not Law is verse twenty-six through twenty-eight still hold true?

After reading the Parable of the Good Samaritan in verses thirty through thirty-seven.

-Was Jesus strategic in his choice of characters for the Good Samaritan? If so, what was he teaching?

-Does the care, time and money given to the man seem extravagant or unreasonable in today's world?

In verse thirty seven He tells us to do the same.

-Is this just a cultural teaching during Jesus's time or is it a command for every Christian?

-What does this look like in your life?

In verse thirty eight through forty two. We have two very different sisters.

-What are some characteristics of the two sisters?

Martha –

Mary-

Why did Jesus correct one and praise the other?

-Who are you more prone to be like?

-What's Christ desire for us to do or be? Do we need balance?

-How can you implement that in "Your" time with and for the father?

-After studying Luke ten. What are some take aways you received from this chapter?
